

Massachusetts State Trooper injured in motorcycle crash

At approximately 7:12 pm tonight a member of the Massachusetts State Police Motorcycle Unit crashed while on duty on the ramp from Route 95 northbound to Route 95/128 northbound in Canton.

The only vehicle involved in the crash was the motorcycle. The trooper, a male, was transported by ambulance to Boston Medical Center with injuries that are serious but not considered life-threatening.

The cause of the crash remains under investigation by State Police. No further information is being released at this time.
