

Massachusetts State Troopers and K-9 Luna visit Gabby at Children's Hospital in Boston

On Friday, K-9 Luna, along with several Massachusetts State Police Troopers, paid a visit to Gabby at Children's Hospital in Boston. This Monday Gabby's father, Trainee Michael Atton, began training at the Massachusetts State Police Academy as part of the 85th Recruit Training Troop.

Gabby is one tough little girl who is battling cancer and wasn't feeling too well today prompting Luna's visit. While Trainee Atton is beginning a new career with the MSP he will be spending longer hours and days away from home until his graduation in approximately 6 months.
