

Bristol County D.A. adds man with ties to Westport and Fall River to “Most Wanted” list

Zachary Brazdis has been wanted for the past eight months after defaulting on a Superior Court Probation matter in December of 2018. The defendant threw a 75-year-old Taunton Galleria Mall employee to the ground in order to escape with a camera he had stolen from Sears.

He also threatened an elder with a gun. The defendant previously resided in Dartmouth and has ties to both the Westport area and the Flint section of Fall River.
