

New Bedford police seek assistance in identifying burglary suspects

On Friday June 27th a housebreak occurred during the daytime hours in the area of Matthew St. and Stackhouse St. It appears that entry may have been gained through a window when the tenants were not home. Cash was taken during the break.

Detective Michael Lopes is looking to identify the two males in the attached photograph. It is believed that they are responsible for the breaking and entering.

He can be reached at 508-991-6300 ext. 137
