

City of New Bedford announces completion of Keith Middle School athletic field

“Keith Middle School’s new athletic field is officially completed, thanks to the work of school district and City staff, and students are already getting use out of it this school year.

After the addition of this new field, Keith Middle School now has a sizeable athletic field for its students.”