

New Bedford Educators Association raise $5,300 worth of supplies for kids in need

During their annual fundraising drive, the New Bedford Educators Association and New Bedford Public School nurses raised more than $5,300 to purchase coats, educational supplies and hygiene items for kids in need. Earlier in the school year, school nurses identified supplies needed and then picked them up at Keith Middle School yesterday to distribute to the kids at their school.