

New Bedford restaurant and police seek help in identifying a “chew and screw” couple

“So, these 2 lovely people decided they wanted a free dinner today. They had soup, chicken and shrimp on a skewer and a T-Bone steak! They chose not to pay for the meals or to tip their waitress!

The police have been called, a report has been made, and the video has been given. The owner and us employees of the Royal Grille work hard to earn a living. Any help in identifying these lovely people would be very appreciated!”-Wendy Barnes.

