

New Bedford man allegedly hits person with car during argument

According to New Bedford police, an argument between two people turned violent when a driver used his vehicle to strike another person in front of 37 Bullard Street. The incident occurred at 10:15 am on Thursday, April 11.

Police are charging 44-year old Manuel Perez of New Bedford with Assault and Battery with a dangerous weapon.

The victim was conscious and alert when first responders arrived and was transported to the hospital.