"New Bedford police detectives have made a sizeable seizure of Fentanyl and arrested a trafficker in the process.

On March 4, detectives assigned to the "Organized Crime Intelligence Bureau" executed a search warrant at 22 Babbitt St., #2. The target of the investigation was JESUS GABRIEL MARRERO GAETAN, 31.

During a search of the residence, approximately 215 grams of Fentanyl was located along with a digital scale and packaging materials. GAETAN was also in possession of $2,252 in US currency which was seized as a result of it being proceeds from illicit drug trade.

The lead investigator was Det. Timothy Soares.

The New Bedford police department remains steadfast in it's struggle against the opiate epidemic which has left so many lives shattered in the city and across the country.
