Detective Nathan Pimental lead the investigation.

Chief Joseph Cordeiro again commends the work of Narcotics Detectives during these challenging times and thanks the community for its ongoing support. "Despite the social and health situations we continue to face here in New Bedford and across the country, it has not thwarted the remarkable efforts of detectives to stay laser-focused on getting drugs and drug dealers off our streets," he said. "We sincerely appreciate the continued support of New Bedford residents as we work to keep the city safe."
