

New Bedford residents band together to show their true colors in act of kindness

“Juan and his family were overwhelmed with joy and very grateful and thanked everyone involved.

The real credit belongs to? Lisa White, ?City Council President Ian Abreu, and? Kathleen Prefontaine for the donations which allowed 7 children to receive brand-new sneakers and socks.

They didn’t want recognition but I insisted ?. Juan promised he would graduate and get good grades♥” -Carlos Pimental Felix.
