

North end marijuana dispensary plan to be presented to City Council on Thursday

Edward Sylvia Jr., a real estate broker and attorney, sent a letter to the New Bedford City Council detailing a plan to open a marijuana dispensary on Church Street in the North End of New Bedford behind Brodeur & Sons Heating and Air Conditioning and across the Street from Palace Pizza on Tarkiln Hill Road.

The letter is being presented as a communication by Council President Linda Morad in this Thursday's 7pm City Council session and is referred to the New Bedford Special Committee on the Licensing and Zoning for Cannabis.
