

Oak Grove Cemetery worker warns of high mosquito count

The following was sent to us from a reader:

“I just wanted to add about the West Nile mosquitoes. I work at the Oak Grove Cemetery on Parker Street and our cemetery is flooded with them, so I just wanted to let the page know so the people of the city can apply spray before they take their morning walks. Plus the kids can be more alert while walking home from school.”

West Nile Virus detected in latest mosquito sample at Rural Cemetery in New Bedford

West Nile Virus detected in latest mosquito sample at New Bedford Business Park