

30% Savings at Ocean State Job Lot for Veterans, Service Members and Families

Ocean State Job Lot has a long history of commitment and support for military service members and their families. That's why we're holding a special savings event called "Operation: Thank You!" 2013 for all veterans, active duty and retired military servicemen and women, their families and dependents to receive 30% off their purchase at all Ocean State Job Lot stores from Sunday, October 20 through Wednesday October 23, 2013. It's our way of expressing gratitude for all that military personnel have done and are doing for our country.

This program is not available to the general public, so you won't see it advertised on TV, radio or in the newspaper. We're relying on you to help get the word out. Please share this information with your veteran and military friends, family and colleagues so they can take advantage of this discount at their local Job Lot store.

For more program specifics, visit <http://www.osjl.com> or call David Sarlitto at 401-295-2672 x2884.
