

OPINION: Concerned New Bedford mom frustrated with school officials' response to bullying

"My son goes to Keith Junior High School in New Bedford and has been bullied for the last few weeks.

I've been told they have resolved it but each day my son comes home saying how it's escalating. I've reached out to the teachers, principal, and superintendent with no real resolution.

How is it okay to run your school this way?"-Concerned mother.