

OPINION: “Dartmouth Youth Football League cheerleading board is back to their shady games”

The following is an opinion sent to New Bedford Guide. It does not reflect the opinion of New Bedford Guide, nor is it an OP-ED. In fairness and objectivity we share opinions from our readers whether we agree or disagree with their opinion.

“I think everyone remembers a few months back when the Dartmouth Youth Football League CHEER had all of the drama surrounding the older team going to Florida and the select board not wanting to let them go.

The board chose to blame the two women who ran cheerleading which then led to them both leaving their positions.

It is now time for a new cheer season and the DYFL board is back to their shady games, they are voting on and choosing a new cheer coordinator but will not tell anyone who is up or when the vote is. As parents, we were told there would be no more secret meetings when it comes to this program moving forward but here we are again.

Please post anonymously as I do not want my children to be treated poorly by the members of the board or both cheer and football side.”
