

P.A.C.E. offers FREE college classes in the humanities for low-income adults to New Bedford starting September 10

Free college classes in the humanities, for low-income adults in New Bedford! The Clemente Course in the Humanities is now accepting applications for its 14th year, which will start September 10th.

Classes are FREE, as is childcare, books and transportation!

Take classes Moral Philosophy, Art History, US History, Literature, Writing and Public Speaking, and earn up to 6 credits from UMass-Dartmouth.

More info, and a link to an application, below. If you need a paper application mailed to you, call PACE at 508 999 9928."

Learn more here.