

Police searching for suspects who slashed tires on 21 vehicles in New Bedford

New Bedford Police are investigating the report of 21 vehicles that had one to two tires slashed. The damage was reported in the area of Highland Street, Loftus Street, Harvard Street and Phillips Avenue. The damage is believed to have occurred from Friday night (6/16) to early Saturday morning (6/17).

On June 12th, officers arrested an adult male and two juvenile males for “keying” 23 vehicles in the area of Brigham and Carol Street. It is not known if these two incidents are connected. Anyone with information is asked to please contact the Police Department at 508-992-7463 or at tip@newbedfordpd.com.