

Professor, Dean, Master Teacher Adolf Brown invited to speak at New Bedford Public Schools

"This speaker Adolf Brown Professor, Dean, Master Teacher was brought here by our New Bedford Public School Superintendent to speak to all of New Bedford School Teachers and Staff.

What an amazing positive speaker. Came from poverty, his brother was murdered at age 11. He went to all these universities and earned all these degrees I think the public should meet this guy."-Robin Monteiro.

"He is recognized as one of the top 10 most influential thought leaders in America. He is a servant-leader at heart, and is admired around the world for his simple and direct "Real Talk," and powerful, universal and timeless teachings. r. Brown is best known for inspiring all who hear him to learn, laugh and lead, while simultaneously reducing implicit bias at every turn. He is the leading provider of anti-bias training in business and education."

You can read Adolf Brown's full bio on his here.

All photos by Robin Monteiro.

