

Shots fired after apparent home invasion on Clara Street

Police are investigating after two shots were fired after an apparent home invasion on 20 Clara St. at about noon Wednesday Jan. 11.

An argument ensued, resulting in shots fired. No shell casings were immediately found.

The suspect was described as a clean-shaven Hispanic man in his 20s, about six feet tall, wearing blue jeans and a dark jacket with white fur. He was last seen headed west on foot on Clara Street. He may have gotten into an older model blue Ford Expedition. No injuries were reported and no property damage was found.
