

SouthCoast Corsairs FRC Robotics team wins two rookie awards and moves to quarter finals

The SouthCoast Corsairs, a local FRC robotics team based out of UMass Dartmouth, made it into the Quarter Finals and won two important Rookie awards, one of which advances them to the New England District Championship.

Comprised of students from five different local high schools, this is their first ever competition – which happened at UMass Dartmouth. Way to go!