

St. Anne's Credit Union recognized as "Best Financial Institution," third year in a row

St. Anne's Credit Union is pleased to announce that they have once again been recognized as Best Financial Institution in SouthCoast Media Group's Best of the Best Awards for the third year in a row.

The Best of the Best Awards are voted annually by community members in the SouthCoast and in 2019, there were nearly 13,400 votes cast in 140 categories. "St. Anne's is once again honored and humbled to receive this award," stated Eileen M. Danahey, President and CEO. "It speaks volumes about our dedication to delivering outstanding customer service, offer personalized products and services and to our commitment to the communities within our footprint. We'd like to thank our valued members and dedicated employees for helping us achieve this award."
