St. Anne's Credit Union Announces its new Westport Branch Location – Now Open!

FALL RIVER, MASSACHUSETTS, January 19, 2021 St. Anne's Credit Union's Board of Directors and senior leadership team are pleased to announce their new branch at 610 State Road in Westport, MA, is now open for business. This new location marks the ninth branch office for St. Anne's, whose footprint covers a large portion of the SouthCoast including Fall River, Swansea, Somerset, Dartmouth, New Bedford and Fairhaven – and now Westport.

Eileen M. Danahey, St. Anne's President & CEO is enthusiastic about opening this new branch. "In 2021, St. Anne's has been a part of the SouthCoast community for 85 years and it's with great anticipation and excitement that we continue to expand our presence in order to provide a more modern banking experience and keep up with continued growth. We are upbeat about the many positive achievements noted by the Credit Union in the past few years and this new facility features upgraded technology and enhanced digital services that provide those that bank with us mobile access to their accounts – and loans – wherever and whenever they choose. We are excited for the future here at St. Anne's and the opening of this new branch signals our ongoing commitment to serve the individuals, families and businesses of Westport and the surrounding communities with our value-added services and exceptional customer service that enable us to provide strategic insight to fulfill financial goals."

As a full-service location, St. Anne's Westport Branch offers in-branch solutions as well as online and digital banking to address all banking preferences. Additionally, the branch provides a 24-hour drive-up ATM and night depository and an extensive array of consumer and commercial products and services to efficiently service the financial needs of the community.

St. Anne's understands that when it comes to banking services, value and convenience are critical. From their tellers to their boardroom, everyone at St. Anne's is dedicated to making their members their first priority. Their banking professionals will work with you to help make managing your money easy.
