

St. Anne's Hires Jeffrey Miller as Vice President, Consumer Loan Manager

Eileen M. Danahey, President & Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of St. Anne's Credit Union, along with its Board of Directors, are pleased to announce that Jeffrey Miller has been hired as Vice President, Consumer Loan Manager. Jeffrey will be responsible for the overall direction, administration and performance of the Credit Union's consumer lending activities, ensuring a positive outcome for both St. Anne's and its members as the Credit Union continues to assist borrowers in realizing their financial goals and dreams.

Jeffrey earned a Bachelor's Degree from Western Michigan University and brings with him over 35 years of lending and credit experience. Prior to joining St. Anne's, Jeffrey was the co-owner and Manager of Credit and Operations for CUB Lending Partners, LLC. Beginning his career as a Credit Manager at Citibank, he also held leadership roles at Santander Bank where he managed the underwriting teams and Spillane Consulting Associates, utilizing his loan operations knowledge as a consultant.

"We are pleased to hire Jeffrey with his proven track record of delivering results through his broad range of credit and lending experience. Having the right people in place to keep up with our increasing growth and further enable us to offer quick turnaround times combined with competitive rates and flexible terms based on our local lending advantage is of utmost importance. Jeffrey possesses exceptional expertise in his field and will work tirelessly to provide solutions for every individual's financing need," said Carlos DaCunha, Senior Vice President and Chief Lending Officer of St. Anne's Credit

Union. "He is committed to providing valuable support and service to our members while contributing to the Credit Union's reputation as an upstanding financial partner and we look forward to his contributions in our next phase of growth."
