

State Police have announced sobriety checkpoint in Plymouth County

It will be operated during varied hours, the selection of vehicles will not be arbitrary.

Colonel Richard D. McKeon, Superintendent of the Massachusetts State Police, announced that a "Sobriety Checkpoint" will be implemented by the Massachusetts State Police on a Public Way in the Counties named below. The purpose is to further educate the motoring public and strengthen the public's awareness to the need of detecting and removing those motorists who operate under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs from our roadways. It will be operated during varied hours, the selection of vehicles will not be arbitrary, safety will be assured, and any inconveniences to motorists will be minimized with advance notice to reduce fear and anxiety.

A "SOBRIETY CHECKPOINT" WILL BE HELD IN THE COUNTIES LISTED BELOW:

Plymouth Friday November 13, 2015 into Saturday November 14, 2015
