Stop & Shop Pharmacy employee arrested for breaking into pharmacy to steal drugs

Just past midnight on Wednesday, July 3rd, a Stop & Shop Pharmacy employee at 438 Dartmouth Street in New Bedford was arrested for breaking into the pharmacy he worked at to allegedly steal prescription drugs (oxycontin, oxycodone, Hydrocodone, and amphetamine).

32-year old Jaime Feliciano Jr. of New Bedford is being charged with three counts of larceny of drugs, three counts of possession of a Class B drug, three counts of possession of a class C drug, and three counts of breaking into a depository.