

The Best Bars for Watching the 2014 NFL Playoffs

This is a big weekend for NFL fans, especially if you live in New England. The New England Patriots will be playing the Broncos in Denver today at 3 p.m. EST on CBS. Finding the best place to watch the Patriots game can really make a difference. Most bars provide food specials, but some really go out of their way to make sure your game day experience is enjoyable. Here is a list of bars in the Greater New Bedford that typically have great food specials, lots of HD TVs and management that really takes the playoff season seriously.

Rose Alley Ale House: 94 Front St. New Bedford MA 02740 (508) 858-5123 www.drinkrosealley.com

Number of TV's: 9 HD

Food Specials: All-you-can-eat wings for less than $8

Capacity: 149

Strikers Sports Bar and Grille (Wonder Bowl): 66 Hathaway Road New Bedford, MA 02746 508-993-1746 www.strikerssportsbar.com

Number of TV's: 14 HD, including 115" Projection

Food Specials: Daily specials.

Capacity: 120

Knucklehead's Bar & Grill: 85 MacArthur Dr New Bedford MA 02740 (508) 984-8149 www.knuckleheadsnb.com

Number of TV's: 17 HD

Capacity: 95

Ice House Bar & Grill: 136 Huttleston Ave. Fairhaven MA 02719 (508) 992-BEER www.icechestbar.com

Number of TV's: 6 HD

Drink Specials: No

Capacity: 196

Miller's Homeport: 24 Cove Rd New Bedford MA 02744 (508) 992-1311

Number of TV's: 12 HD

Capacity: 99

Rasputin's Tavern: 122 Main St. Fairhaven MA 02719 (508) 858-5490

Number of TV's: 8 HD

Capacity: 99

Endzone Sports Pub: 218 Coggeshall St. New Bedford, MA 02746 (508) 997-7309

Number of TV's: 7 HD

Food Specials: None

Drink Specials: Call ahead.

Capacity: 100

Buffalo Wild Wings: 186 Dartmouth Mall, North Dartmouth, MA

2014 NFL Playoff Brackets

