

Three buildings damaged on Thanksgiving Day fire in New Bedford

A Thanksgiving morning fire on Washburn Street, reportedly started by deep-frying a turkey, spread through three New Bedford buildings and displaced more than 27 people, and injured at least one person.