

Three long-time members of the Massachusetts State Police retire

“THANK YOU FOR YOUR SERVICE TO OUR MISSION!

We offer our gratitude to three longtime members of the Massachusetts State Police who retired in February: Detective Lieutenant Richard Mahoney, member of the 68th Recruit Training Troop, 34 years of service; Lieutenant Jeffrey McDonald, member of the 69th Recruit Training Troop, 32 years of service; and Trooper James Michael Vines, 37 years of service.

We thank you, sirs, and wish you long, happy, and healthy next chapters to your lives!”-Massachusetts State Police.

Detective Lieutenant Richard Mahoney (left), accepting congratulations from Captain Daniel Richard, 68th Recruit Training Troop, 34 years of service. Massachusetts State Police photo.

Lieutenant Jeffrey McDonald, 69th Recruit Training Troop, 32 years of service. Massachusetts State Police photo.