

State Police Looking for Help Identifying Toddler Remains Found at Deer Island

If you have any information please call the State Police at (617) 727-8817 or (508) 820-2121.

On June 25, 2015 at about 1:00 p.m., the remains of an unidentified, female toddler were recovered on the shore of Deer Island in Winthrop, Massachusetts. The race of the toddler is undetermined at this time. An autopsy will be conducted to help determine cause of death. Anyone with any information about this toddler, or anyone who is aware of a missing child, is urged to call the State Police at (617) 727-8817 or (508) 820-2121.
