

UPDATE: ABC Disposal WILL pick up trash and recycling in New Bedford on Monday, March 4, 2019.

After communication with the City, there will NOT be a one-day delay in trash and recycling pickup this week, the week of March 4, 2019, as announced earlier this morning. However, some routes might experience a delay as ABC crews continue pickup. If trash and recycling is not collected on its usual day, residents are asked to leave it overnight so it can be collected the next morning.

Original post:

ABC Disposal has delayed trash and recycling pickup by one day for the week of March 4, 2019, due to the weather.

There will be no residential trash and recycling collection on Monday, March 4. Trash and recycling collection this week by ABC Disposal will take place on a one-day delay.