

Two arrested for home break-ins throughout southern MA

On March 6th, 2015, Lakeville Police executed a search warrant in connection with two individuals wanted for at least three house breaks, and a larceny in Lakeville. After a week long investigation the individuals were located staying at the Moby Dick Motel in Dartmouth. Lakeville Police executed a warrant at that location and recovered various stolen property from the house break-in in Lakeville, as well as stolen property from Stoughton, Mattapoisett, Marion, and Dartmouth.

The two subjects had been arrested by the Massachusetts State Police. A male subject identified as Robert Beaucaire was arrested on a warrant from South Carolina for grand larceny. A female subject identified as Amy Peters was arrested on a Lakeville Police warrant for Receiving Stolen Property.

Investigating the incident for the Lakeville Police were Detective/Sergeant Sean Joyce and Officer Erik McNeice. Also assisting were Dartmouth, Mattapoisett, and Marion Detectives as well as Massachusetts State Police.
