Two Arrested For Sara's Bakery Robbery In New Bedford

Two people were arrested Monday after food was stolen from Sara's Bakery at 1300 Acushnet Ave. and at Market Basket at 122 Sawyer St. Monday morning.

Lacy Langevin, 33, of 131 Hathaway St., New Bedford, was charged with armed robbery and destruction of property.

Justin Troy Galary, 38, of 131 Hathaway St., New Bedford, was charged with armed robbery and shoplifting.

Galary stood outside Sara's Bakery at about 8:45 a.m. while Langevin, armed with a knife, jumped over the counter, knocking over items, and demanded money.

Langevin ran off with a bag of chips. No money was taken.

The two then headed to Market Basket, where Langevin stood outside while Galary stole frozen goods.
The two were arrested at 9:35 a.m.
