Two New Bedford juveniles arrested for breaking into Belleville Road home

New Bedford police officers arrested two juveniles early Monday who were in the process of breaking into 190 Belleville Road. The arrests were made at 2:22 a.m.

The two males, both 17 and from New Bedford, were charged with felony breaking and entering into a building in the nighttime.

Police responded to the address on a report of a break in progress and ordered to the suspects to exit the building. When they didn't, the K-9 unit was brought in and the suspects then surrendered to police. One of the suspects also faces a warrant charge.
