

Two State Police Sobriety Checkpoints planned for weekend

DON'T DRINK & DRIVE!

Colonel Timothy P. Alben, Superintendent of the Massachusetts State Police, announced that a "Sobriety Checkpoint" will be implemented by the Massachusetts State Police on a Public Way in Worcester and Essex counties.

The purpose is to further educate the motoring public and strengthen the public's awareness to the need of detecting and removing those motorists who operate under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs from our roadways. It will be operated during varied hours, the selection of vehicles will not be arbitrary, safety will be assured, and any inconveniences to motorists will be minimized with advance notice to reduce fear and anxiety.

Worcester County: Friday April 17, 2015 into Saturday April 18, 2015.

Essex County: Essex Saturday April 18, 2015 into Sunday April 19, 2015.
