

Two women arrested for unarmed burglary in Wareham

On Thursday, August 16, at about 9:20 p.m. Wareham police officers were dispatched to a residence on Gibbs Avenue, for a report of two females ripping screens off of a house, and kicking in the front door.

Officers Aaron Pacheco and Nate Aronson responded and confronted two females who had broken into the home. When officers asked the females to identify themselves, one refused and was uncooperative with the officers. She and the other female were then placed under arrest.

The female who refused to cooperate was later identified as Jaime Zornitsky, 27, of Mashpee. Ms. Zornitsky had been placed into custody on an unrelated matter by Wareham Police on Tuesday, and with that arrest, she also failed to identify herself. The second female arrested was Tara Nightingale, 23, of Mashpee. Both females were charged with, unarmed burglary, and it should be noted that this was not a random incident.
