

Two women in serious condition after hitting parked car and tree on Brock Ave.

Police are investigating a motor vehicle accident which occurred in the area of 790 Brock Avenue. The accident was reported early this morning around 2:00am. Officers found a vehicle that had struck a tree in the area of 790 Brock Avenue.

Prior to striking the tree the vehicle struck a parked car in front of 766 Brock Avenue. Damage was also done to a street sign, fence and bushes near the 790 Brock Avenue address.

Both the driver and passenger were extricated from the vehicle by New Bedford Fire fighters. The driver, a 31-year old New Bedford woman was transported to Rhode Island Hospital. The passenger, a 33-year old Easton woman was also transported to Rhode Island Hospital. Both have serious injuries.

Witnesses say the vehicle was traveling at a high rate of speed before the collisions occurred. The accident remains under investigation by our accident reconstruction team and charges will more than likely be forthcoming.

Video by Carlos Pimentel Felix.