

Unclaimed 100K Mass Cash Ticket Sold in New Bedford Set to Expire in February

Did you know that lottery winners only have ONE year to claim their prize? There are several $100,000 Mass Cash lottery tickets that remain unclaimed in Massachusetts and are about to expire. All the tickets were bought in February of last year.

One of those tickets was sold right here in New Bedford at Costa Sunoco Mini-Mart. Check your tickets, especially if you regularly visit this location. Two of the missing tickets are from the same drawing.

Here are all three of the unclaimed tickets:

09-22-23-26-30. Sold at AM-PM Convenience, 489 Bearses Way, Hyannis on Feb. 3

10-14-16-26-29. Sold at Costa Sunoco Mini Mart, 397 Sawyer St., New Bedford on Feb. 26

10-14-16-26-29. Sold at Dracut Town Variety, 1734 Lakeview Ave., Dracut on Feb. 26

Prizes can be claimed in Braintree, Dorchester, New Bedford, Springfield, Woburn, and Worcester during normal business hours.

If no one claims the prizes the money goes back in the lottery for general distribution.

Posted on the Mass Lottery Website:

