Wahlburgers joins Massachusetts State Police for "Pink Patch Project" cause

Wahlburgers (Wahlburgers) partnered up with Hingham Police for a Pink Patch Project Event this past week. Trooper Dustin Fitch joined Hingham with Methuen Police Department and our pink cruisers for the event.

Great turnout for a great event for a great cause. Special thanks to Chef Paul Wahlberg for hosting the event and hanging out for some photos.

Also special thanks to Live Boston for taking great photos."-Massachusetts State Police.
