

Wareham Police respond to car accident that seriously injures three

On Friday July 24, at about 11:50 a.m. Wareham Police responded to a car accident on Swifts Beach Road near Marion Road.

Three people were transported to the hospital with serious injuries.

The accident remains under investigation by Wareham Police Officers Hannah Salerno and Jennifer Braley, along with the Massachusetts State Police Accident Reconstruction Team.