

Wareham police arrest woman for multiple shoplifting incidents at Lowe's

On Friday, February 19, at about 11:40 a.m. Officers Jennifer Braley and Calib Larue arrested Mattison Nikolov (35), of Wareham, at Lowes for shoplifting.

It is suspected that she put tools in an empty trash barrel and scanned the barrel; however, she did not scan the tools. She was stopped by loss prevention personnel and it was determined that $729.00 worth of items had not been scanned.

After the arrest was made, the two officers began to investigate the case further. With the assistance of loss prevention staff, it is believed that Ms. Nikolov had been in the store on two dates since January 27, and each time had shoplifted items. The total value of the items stolen on those dates was over $1,200.

She is facing two new additional charges of shoplifting over $250.00.
