

Wareham woman arrested for assaulting police, EMS personnel

On Tuesday, January 1, at about 2:30 a.m. Wareham Police along with Wareham EMS responded to the Rosewood Motel for a report of an injured person.

At the scene, Officers Nate Aronson and Robert McLain encountered a female who required transport to the hospital following a disturbance. The female became combative and kicked Lieutenant Robert Horte a paramedic with the Wareham EMS in the face, kicked Officer Aronson in the head, and kicked Officer McLain in the groin area.

Brandierose J. Woodard, 25, of East Wareham, was arrested and charged with, 3 counts of assault and battery with a dangerous weapon, 2 counts of assault and battery on a police officer, assault and battery on ambulance personnel, resisting arrest, disorderly conduct, and disturbing the peace.

She was transported to the police station, after being treated at Tobey Hospital, and is expected in Wareham District Court to answer to these charges on Wednesday morning.
