

Woman robbed after leaving south end New Bedford day care

On Friday, January 29, 2016, a woman was the victim of an unarmed robbery that took place around 8:30am. She had just left a day care on Crapo Street in New Bedford when a man came up from behind her, demanded her money and robbed her of a bank deposit. He then ran in the direction of Demellos Market. Police went inside Demellos looking for evidence/footage. The woman was not harmed.
